

Child Safeguarding Policy Statement of the Institute of Charity (Rosminians) in Ireland

As a constituent member of the Catholic Church in Ireland, the Institute of Charity (Rosminians) recognize and uphold the dignity and rights of all children, are committed to ensuring their safety and well-being, and will work in partnership with parents/guardians to do this. We recognize each child as a gift from God, and we value and encourage the participation of children in all activities that enhance their spiritual, physical, emotional, intellectual and social development.

All Institute of Charity (Rosminian) personnel (including staff and volunteers) have a responsibility to safeguard children through promoting their welfare, health and development in a safe and caring environment that supports their best interests and prevents abuse.
